

Spas in Queretaro

Most of the Spas in Queretaro are located inside spacious hotels; however the biggest spa in Latin America is Rancho La Pitaya (2,174.80 mi²). This spa is located 10 minutes away from the city, (kilometer 16 on the freeway to Celaya). The spa combines modern science and technology with ancient temascal therapy from the Mexicas.

This place takes advantage of various techniques to improve physical and mental development; such ancient Roman, hydrotherapy, aromatherapy, solarium, Jacuzzi using waters from San Bartolo which are very rich in minerals. The area of hydrotherapy has a thermal pool and a therapeutic pool.

You can have the rest you've been longing for as well as specialized nutritionists, facials, therapeutic massages, thermal clay treatments, gym, weights, and much more.

Another important spa in Queretaro is within Mision Juriquilla, where experts from Rumania will pamper you with pleasure.

dreamhousing.com has properties available in Juriquilla and Queretaro where you can golf, relax and visit one of the spas for your complete relaxation.